Classical Singing: ALCM in Performance

Please refer to the syllabus for full guidelines on examination components and selection of repertoire.

Technical Work

Candidates should select EITHER scales and arpeggios OR studies and folksong.

Option 1: Scales and Arpeggios (from memory)

To be performed:

- forte and legato
- forte and staccato
- piano and legato
- piano and staccato

and to any vowel sound, at the direction of the examiner.

Range: within a compass of a 12th proposed by the candidate.

ONE scale/arpeggio to be sung over the range of a 12th; other requirements to be sung over the range of one octave.

Scales and Arpeggios

All major and minor (harmonic and melodic) scales, and arpeggios in root position, as permitted by the proposed compass. The starting pitch will be given.

Dominant 7th Arpeggios

In root position, in all keys permitted by the proposed compass. The tonic chord will be given.

Option 2: Studies and Folksong

- a. Candidates should perform, in Italian or German, any TWO Studies from Vaccai: Metodo Pratico (lesson 9 onwards; candidate's choice). Candidates may use the score. (Peters)
- b. Candidates should perform an unaccompanied folksong (candidate's choice) in any language.

Performance

Viva Voce

Refer to syllabus for full guidelines. In addition, candidates should be prepared to discuss issues relating to the texts and word-setting.

Classical Singing: LLCM in Performance

Please refer to the syllabus for full guidelines on examination components and selection of repertoire.

Performance

Refer to syllabus for full guidelines on the selection of repertoire.

Candidates should compile a recital according to the following guidelines:

Candidates must present a programme which demonstrates skill and versatility in the performance of vocal music from oratorio, opera and the art song repertoire. Doubt about inclusion of any item should be cleared with the Chief Examiner in Music in advance and any written approval obtained presented to the examiners at the examination.

No Music Theatre, Pop or Jazz songs may be presented in Classical Singing exams.

Programmes may be constructed according to Option A or Option B. Own choice items may be included in order to bring the recital up to the required duration.

OPTION A:

The programme must include the following:

1. At least ONE recit. and aria from an oratorio or cantata.
2. At least ONE operatic aria (with recit. where appropriate).
3. At least TWO art songs in TWO different languages other than the candidate's native tongue. (The original language must be used wherever possible.)
4. At least ONE art song in the candidate's native tongue.

OPTION B:

The programme must include the following:

1. A selection from a song cycle. Examples are given below, but candidates may choose a work which is not listed. Where the cycle comprises five songs or fewer, the entire cycle should be presented. Where the cycle comprises more than five songs, a selection of at least five contrasting songs from the cycle should be presented:

BEETHOVEN	An die Ferne Geliebte	(G. Schirmer / Music Sales)
BERLIOZ	Les Nuits D'été	(Costallat / UMP)
BRITTEN	On This Island, Op.11	(Boosey & Hawkes)
BUTTERWORTH	A Shropshire Lad	(Stainer & Bell)
FINZI	Five Shakespeare Songs	(Boosey & Hawkes)
GURNEY	The Western Playland	(Stainer & Bell)
MAHLER	Kindertotenlieder	(International Music Company / MDS)
MAHLER	Rückert Lieder	(International Music Company / MDS)
MAHLER	Songs of a Wayfarer	(International Music Company / MDS)
QUILTER	Three Shakespeare Songs, Op. 6	(Boosey & Hawkes)
SCHUBERT	Winterreise from Complete Song Sycles	(Dover)
SCHUMANN	Frauen Liebe und Leben, Op. 42	(G. Schirmer / Music Sales)
WOLF	Spanish Lyrics, Vol.II (mixed voices)	(Peters)

2. At least ONE aria from an oratorio or cantata or opera (with recit. where appropriate), in a language other than the song cycle.
3. At least TWO art songs in TWO further different languages.

Candidates are required to perform from memory, apart from items from oratorio where, in accordance with convention, a score may be used.

Items may be sung in any key, with the exception of items from opera and oratorio.
